ENGLISH STUDIES IN AFRICA

Volume 13

1970

WITWATERSRAND UNIVERSITY PRESS
JOHANNESBURG
1970

ENGLISH STUDIES IN AFRICA

Contents

Volume 13 March, 1970 Number 1

South African Writing in English
And its Place in School and University

Proceedings of the Conference of
The English Academy of Southern Africa
held at Rhodes University, Grahamstown,
7-11 July, 1969

Preface	M. C. O'Dowd
Opening Address	I. D. MacCrone	1
The Purpose of the Conference	F. G. Butler	11
The English-speaking Pupil and South African Set-books	J. B. Gardener	21
Literature across Cultures	W. Branford	37
Problems of presenting English Literature to Afrikaans-speaking Pupils	R. C. Smit	51
Some Thoughts on English Literature "Prescribed Work" in the Coloured Secondary and High Schools	R. E. van der Ross ..	59
Literature across Cultures: English Literature in Bantu Schools	K. B. Hartshorne	67
Literature across Cultures with reference to the Indian Student at High School Level	N. M. Aiyer	81
The South African Novel: Some Observations	R. Sands..	89
The South African Short Story	D. Maclennan	105
Concern and Evocation: Some Aspects of South African English Poetry since the War	R. Beeton	125
New Voices	R. Harnett	139
Creative Writing	M. K. Durham	155
The Place of South African Writing in the University	P. Segal	175
South African English Literature at Afrikaans Universities	N. Sabbagha	181
The Place of South African English Literature in Departments of English at Afrikaans Medium Universities	J. M. Leighton	185
Summing Up	G. Butler	189

Facets of Contemporary Afrikaans Literature	R. Antonissen	191
Style and Themes in the African Novel in English	J. Povey	207
Non-Fictional Prose with special reference to Early Diaries and Reminiscences in English	G. Butler	221
New United States Keys to Old South African Diaries	E. Callan	235
Readings at Bathurst of Diaries Written in the District	G. Butler (anthologizer)	241
South African English as an Index of Social History	L. W. Lanham	251
South African English Literature Bibliographical and Biographical Resources and Problems	R. Musiker	265
Trends in South African Publishing	E. Rosenthal	275
The Art of Nadine Gordimer and Alan Paton	E. Callan	291
Address on the Academy and its Functions	M. C. O'Dowd	293

Volume 13 September, 1970 Number 2

Sir Calidore's Holiday (Pastoral in The Faerie Queen)	L. Lerner	303
The Language of the Poet	E. van Heerden	317
The Language of the Historian	P. Lewsen	337
Towards a New Rhetoric	G. Hutchings	359
The Formal Pattern of Waiting for Godot	E. Durbach	379
South African Drama in English	M. Woodrow	391
Recent Publications	A. C. Partridge	411
	J. W. Perry	411
	H. Boyd	413
	W. M. Beckett	419
	A. Traill	421
Select Bibliography		426

N.W. 4257